LINCOLN COLLOQUIUM TEACHER WORKSHOP

October 3, 2003

Presented by
LINCOLN HOME
NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE

Supported by
EASTERN NATIONAL AND THE
GILDER LEHRMAN INSTITUTE OF AMERICAN HISTORY

Lincoln Home National Historic Site, in conjunction with the Annual Lincoln Colloquium, is hosting a grade 6-12 teacher workshop on Friday, October 3, 2003 at Lincoln Home National Historic Site in downtown Springfield, Illinois. This free workshop will begin at 8:30 A.M. and end at 4:00 P.M.

The Lincoln Colloquium Teacher Workshop will feature a wide variety of subjects including: the "Looking for Lincoln in Central Illinois"; "Teachers and the 2009 Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial"; "Researching at the New Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library"; "Lincoln and Civil War student activities demonstrations"; and, a living history drama.

Teachers attending the workshop will also be entitled to attend the Annual Lincoln Colloquium on Saturday, October 4, at the Springfield Hilton, at no cost. The Annual Lincoln Colloquium is a national conference at which Lincoln scholars from throughout the nation present historical insights concerning Abraham Lincoln. The Colloquium sponsors are convinced teachers can make use of the ideas and interactions of the Colloquium to enhance their teaching and benefit their students.

Funding for the Lincoln Colloquium Teacher Workshop was made available through Eastern National, Lincoln Home National Historic Site's cooperating association, and the Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History. The Gilder Lehrman Institute is a New York City based organization is dedicated to collecting, preserving, interpreting, and promoting interest in the history of the United States and to rekindle the excitement of American history for teachers, students, and the general public.

Lincoln Home National Historic Site and the Lincoln Colloquium is an approved Illinois State Board of Education Continuing Professional Development Unit (CPDU) provider. For more information, please contact Lincoln Home National Historic Site at 217-492-4241, ext. 241 or at tim_townsend@nps.gov.
